Kentucky Department of Revenue to present Tax Modernization Seminars

FRANKFORT, Ky.—The Department of Revenue (DOR) will be participating in regional seminars beginning this month to inform tax professionals of the impacts of tax modernization (HB 272) changes.

The two-day seminars will be held throughout the state in October, November and December. The seminars will explore tax modernization changes to corporation income, individual income and sales and excise taxes and are geared toward CPAs, attorneys, enrolled agents and tax preparers.

Seminar dates and locations are:

October 17th and 18th—Frankfort Convention Center
November 7th and 8th—Lexington Convention Center
November 15th and 16th—Louisville International Convention Center
November 21st and 22nd—Lake Barkley State Resort Park, Cadiz
November 28th and 29th—Jenny Wiley State Resort Park, Prestonsburg
December 5th and 6th—Lake Cumberland State Resort Park, Jamestown
December 19th and 20th—General Butler State Resort Park, Carrollton

For more information or to register for these seminars, please contact the Kentucky Society of Certified Public Accountants at 502/266-5272; toll free at 800/292-1754 (KY);
